

RICK SWEDLOFF

Assistant Professor • Rutgers School of Law – Camden
217 North Fifth Street • Camden, NJ 08102
(o) 856.225.2961 • swedloff@camden.rutgers.edu

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Rutgers School of Law – Camden, Camden, NJ

Assistant Professor 2010-

Visiting Associate Professor, 2008-2010

- Courses: Civil Procedure, Law and Economics
- Service: Educational Policy Committee (2009-), Speakers Committee (2008-2009)

EDUCATION

University of Pennsylvania Law School, J.D., 2000

- Articles Editor, JOURNAL OF CONSTITUTIONAL LAW
- Finalist, Keedy Cup Moot Court Competition

Haverford College, B.A., 1994

- Thesis: “The Debate Over the ‘Underclass’: Utility, Theory, & Analysis”

FELLOWSHIPS & CLERKSHIPS

Temple University, Beasley School of Law, Philadelphia, PA

Honorable Abraham L. Freedman Fellow and Lecturer in Law, 2006-2008

L.L.M. in Legal Education, 2008

- Courses: Advanced Civil Procedure; Legal Research and Writing

United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, Wilmington, DE

Law Clerk to the Honorable Walter K. Stapleton, 2001-2002

United States District Court for the District of Delaware, Wilmington, DE

Law Clerk to the Honorable Roderick R. McKelvie, 2000-2001

PUBLICATIONS

Tort Damages and the New Science of Happiness, 85 IND. L.J. 553 (2010)
(with Peter H. Huang)

Accounting for Happiness in Civil Settlements, 108 COLUM. L. REV. SIDENOTE
39 (2008)

*Can't Settle, Can't Sue: How Congress Stole Tort Remedies From Medicare
Beneficiaries*, 41 AKRON L. REV. 537 (2008)

Authentic Happiness & Meaning at Law Firms, 58 SYR. L. REV. 335 (2008)
(with Peter H. Huang)

Settlement Issues in Mass Torts, in MASS TORTS (Sean Wajert and Andrew Gaddes eds., Law Journal Press, forthcoming) (invited contribution to treatise) (with Richard Berkman)

Legal Opinion Letter: Sarbanes Oxley's Impact on State Corporate Governance, 13 Washington Legal Foundation 16 (2004) (with David Kotler)

WORKS IN PROGRESS

Uncompensated Torts

The Serious Implications of Happiness

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS

Can't Settle, Can't Sue

- Rand Institute for Civil Justice, Law and Policy Symposium, Beyond Compliance: The Hidden Consequences of the Medicare Secondary Payer Rules, Washington D.C. (June, 2010) (invited presentation)
- Rand Institute for Civil Justice, Law and Policy Symposium, Beyond Compliance: The Hidden Consequences of the Medicare Secondary Payer Rules for mass Tort and Personal Injury Litigation, Los Angeles, CA (September, 2010) (invited presentation)

Tort Damages and The New Science of Happiness

- Psychological Analysis of Legal Decision Making Seminar at University of Pennsylvania Law School (October, 2009)
- American Law and Economics Association Annual Meeting in the Tort Law & Compensation Systems Panel (May, 2009)
- Midwest Law & Economics Association Annual Meeting in the Torts Panel (October, 2008)

Accounting for Happiness in Civil Settlements

- Law and Human Behavior Seminar at Temple University Law School (September, 2008) (invited response)

OTHER LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Dechert LLP, Philadelphia, PA
Litigation Associate, 2002-2006

United States Department of Justice, Civil Division, Washington, D.C.
Summer Law Intern, 2000

O'Melveny & Myers LLP, Washington, D.C.
Summer Associate, 1999